DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-10 and 13-18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Diebold (US 3,224,448).

Diebold discloses an article of clothing 10 with a tight fitting stretchable body encircling portion 11, right and left legs 12,13; crotch portion 20; first and second flaps 42,43 each having free edges 44,45 structured and positionable as claimed. (See Diebold, figures 2, 4 and 5 and col. 2, line 9 – col. 3, line 37). The flaps overlap as claimed and include the free edge structure and flap shapes as claimed. (See col. 2, line 33 – col. 3, line 37). The length to width ratio of the crotch portion is within the claimed range as seen in figure 2.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

Claims 11 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Diebold (US 3,224,448) in view of Hoffman (US 2,812,516).

Art Unit: 3765

Diebold discloses the invention substantially as claimed except for the snap fasteners to close the crotch opening. Hoffman discloses a garment with an open crotch and snap fasteners 46 to close the opening as claimed. (See Hoffman, col. 2, lines 34-39).

Accordingly it would have been obvious to one having ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to modify the crotch opening of Diebold with the teaching of Hoffman to include the snap fasteners to secure the crotch flap closed as desired.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 10-17-05 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive. In regard to applicant's remarks concerning claim 1, The embodiment of figure 2 shows the free edge as not being substantially parallel as claimed. The insert edges 42,43 provide the substantially overlapping flaps when the crotch is closed and which are displaced from the centerline and are not substantially parallel to the centerline. Diebold teaches shaping the insert for coverage and overlap. (Col. 2, lines 47-51). In regard to claim 17, Diebold teaches shaping the flap portions 42,43(22,23) in different shapes to provide the contoured crotch coverage and overlapping as in col. 2, lines 47-51 and col. 3, lines 35-43) In regard to claim 18, the flaps 42,43 in figure 2 are flat and seamless as applicants figure 2.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
